Accessibility Guide

Caledonian Railway Angus

Brechin Station, DD9 7AF

The Caledonian Railway runs on a four mile stretch of preserved railway from their main base at Brechin to Bridge of Dun.

This information is intended as a guide for visitors who are joining us on one of our Angus journeys. We strongly encourage those with specific access needs to contact us at tickets@foxandedwards.com so that we can make provisions for your journey to be as easy and enjoyable as possible.

Car Parking

The railway has a small car park with an unfinished surface at the station. There is also an overflow car park next door for special events. There no marked bays.

It is possible to drop off wheelchair users by the accessible entrance and then take the car to the car park afterwards.

Access to the Platform

The original main ticket office entrance has a set of steps through a garden from the road. The side entrance, which doubles up as the entrance to the station cafe is accessible.

Toilets

Ladies & Gentlemen and Accessible toilets are located at the both Brechin and Bridge of Dun stations. There are no toilets on board the train.

Boarding & Disembarking the Train

Access ramps are available from platform staff to assist with boarding and disembarking the train.

On Board the Train

The railway has an adapted area for wheelchair users in a separate area with provisions for accompanying guests to travel with them.

Please contact us to discuss availability should you wish to book this area.

After Your Journey

All of our journeys are return and therefore you will be back at the same station as you departed from.
